Ram Gopal Varma's Advice To Filmmakers After Dhurandhar 2'S Release

In his latest tweet, Ram Gopal Varma wrote, "Now that @AdityaDharFilms has EXPLODED a ATOMIC BOMB right under the film industry, what is shocking is the loud silence from the rest of the film industry. I don't know whether this is because the #Dhurandhar2 's devastating explosion has hurled everyone else in the film industry so far into OUTER SPACE that their applause cannot reach here due to the long distances , OR whether they're huddled in denial, whispering to each other , "It's just propaganda... it will go away soon ,," so that they can crawl back and resume making their same old repetitive films. OR are they just paralysed by the film's sheer brilliance , realising that whatever they've been making or planning to make , now simply cannot measure up?

But isn't it extremely unwise to ignore a DINOSAUR like #Dhurandhar2 staring you in the face and BREATHING FIRE into your eyes with its BOX OFFICE ROAR shaking the very ground beneath their feet , how can anyone be so foolish enough to look away? My sincere advice to all my colleagues in the film industry is to please take #Dhurandhar2 deadly seriously and study it like a ultra fresh course in filmmaking and educate yourselves OR risk being buried forever in the graveyard of pre March 19th 2026 cinema."
