

Iran-Israel war LIVE updates: Trump suspends Iran bombing for two weeks, Iran demands 10-point proposal

Iran's Supreme National Security Council says 10-point proposal to U.S. includes acceptance of enrichment

Updated – April 08, 2026 10:22 am IST

THE HINDU BUREAU

Demonstrators carry signs and chant slogans during a protest against US military action in Iran near the White House in Washington, DC, on April 7, 2026. | Photo Credit: AFP

U.S. President Donald Trump said on Tuesday (April 7, 2026) he has agreed “to suspend the bombing and attack of Iran for a period of two weeks.” Mr. Trump said he spoke to leaders in Pakistan, which has been a mediator between Washington and Tehran and which had sought a two-week ceasefire in the Iran war.

Also read: U.S. rescues downed airman from Iran, says Trump; Tehran claims it destroyed several U.S. aircraft

“Based on conversations with Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif and Field Marshal Asim Munir, of Pakistan, and wherein they requested that I hold off the destructive force being sent tonight to Iran, and subject to the Islamic Republic of Iran agreeing to the COMPLETE, IMMEDIATE, and SAFE OPENING of the Strait of Hormuz, I agree to suspend the bombing and attack of Iran for a period of two weeks,” Mr. Trump wrote on social media.

Also read: Strait of Hormuz will never return to previous status: Iran’s IRGC

The announcement came after Pakistan made a last-minute proposal to avert massive U.S. attacks on Iran, with Mr. Trump warning a “whole civilization will die tonight” unless a deal was agreed.

Key Updates

Targetted senior commander in Iran's top joint military command, results of attack under review: Israeli military
U.S. strikes military targets on Iran's Kharg Island: U.S. official
Iran President says 14 million Iranians, including himself, have volunteered to sacrifice their lives in war
Iran calls for human chains around power plants; at least 15 killed today
Islamabad's efforts to stop war are reaching 'critical' stage: Iran's Ambassador to Pakistan
'Endangers your life': Israeli military tells people in Iran to avoid using trains
Bridge linking Saudi Arabia to Bahrain closed over Iranian threats as Trump’s deadline nears
Iran rejects ceasefire proposal, says state media

Trump agrees to suspend attack on Iran by two weeks

U.S. President Donald Trump said on Tuesday (April 7, 2026) he has agreed “to suspend the bombing and attack of Iran for a period of two weeks.” Mr. Trump said he spoke to leaders in Pakistan, which has been a mediator between Washington and Tehran and which had sought a two-week ceasefire in the Iran war. Read more-- Reuters

Iranians form human chains on bridges, near power plants as Trump threatens to unleash 'hell'

APRIL 08, 2026 05:52

US military has halted all offensive operations against Iran, US official says, but continues defensive actions, reports AP.

APRIL 08, 2026 05:20

Israel says it detects an incoming Iranian missile barrage despite U.S., Iran saying 2-week ceasefire reached, reports AP

Published – April 07, 2026 06:28 am IST

In Case You Missed It

India withdraws bid to host COP 33
in 2028: Report

Deepika Padukone breaks silence on 'Dhurandhar 2', replies to trolls

Kharge expresses regret over 'illiterate' remark, says he respects...

Cabinet clears draft amendment Bill to implement women's quota

Israel's deadly strikes in Lebanon spark outrage, condemnation...

INDIA bloc says presiding officers bypassed Parliament in...

YouTuber 'Savukku' Shankar arrested in Andhra Pradesh

Tanker carrying 15,400 tonnes of LPG arrives at JNPA in Navi...