The sun is beating down on a small crowd patiently awaiting Vadakara MLA and United Democratic Front (UDF)-backed Revolutionary Marxist Party (RMP) candidate K.K. Rema at Meppattumukku, Adiyur, in Eramala. Party activists are busy distributing watermelon juice in small paper cups to quench their thirst. Flags of the Congress, Indian Union Muslim League (IUML), and the RMP are tied on nearby poles and lamp posts.

With a huge flex board seeking votes for Ms. Rema in his background, K. Deepraj, an RMP activist, is addressing the crowd. From the Sabarimala gold theft case to the alleged “system failure” in the Health department, he highlights the “lapses” of the Left Democratic Front (LDF) government in the State.
