

100% placements, 20% new skills: How MBA hiring is being rewritten in 2026 💎

Published – April 07, 2026 08:59 am IST

O.R.S. RAO

With major consulting firms and BFSI players increasingly favouring Pre-Placement Offer route, B-schools must ensure learning and contribution of the students in the summer internships. | Photo: iStock/ Getty Images

The MBA placement landscape for the Class of 2026 at India's premier business schools, including the "old" IIMs, XLRI, SPJIMR, and FMS Delhi, has shown some stability, despite global macroeconomic challenges. These institutions successfully transitioned from the recovery phase of 2025 into a period of nominal growth, characterised by stable hiring and rising compensation, though the job market witnessed major changes at the sectoral level as well as the roles and the competencies, expected by the recruiters.

(Sign up for THEdge, The Hindu's weekly education newsletter.)

In Case You Missed It

OpenAI will reserve portion of IPO shares for retail investors,...

BJP fields accused in extortion case against TMC Minister Firhad...

An increase in colleges, students but not enough teachers

Tamil Nadu election 2026: Residents block DMK candidate's...

Hyrox, the global fitness race, draws 8,000 athletes to Bengaluru

230 PGDM students pass out of SDMIMD in Mysuru

Iran announces alternative routes for ships travelling through Strait of...

Curtains come down on The Hindu Deep Tech Summit 2026