

Amaravati gains legal status as capital; Andhra Pradesh leaders hail 'historic victory'

Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister N. Chandrababu Naidu expressed profound gratitude to the President for her approval

Updated – April 07, 2026 08:38 am IST – VIJAYAWADA:

G.V.R. SUBBA RAO

Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister N. Chandrababu Naidu expressed profound gratitude to the President Droupadi Murmu for her approval of Amaravati as Andhra Pradesh capital | Photo Credit: PTI

In a landmark development for Andhra Pradesh, the long-pending dream of establishing Amaravati as the State's capital received a decisive boost after Droupadi Murmu gave her assent to the Andhra Pradesh Reorganisation (Amendment) Act, 2026. The move has formally granted legal backing to Amaravati as the capital, marking a significant milestone in the state's political and administrative journey.

Welcoming the development, Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister N. Chandrababu Naidu expressed profound gratitude to the President for her approval, describing it as the fulfilment of a long-cherished aspiration of the people. He also thanked the Union Government led by Prime Minister Narendra Modi for its continued support and guidance in bringing the legislation to fruition.

In Case You Missed It

Parties bound to respect legal backing granted to Amaravati, says...

PM Modi appeals to people of Assam, Kerala and Puducherry to vo...

Amaravati will be developed as global creative economy hub, sa...

Kerala Assembly elections: Pinarayi Vijayan says confident of...

BJP, the known unknown in Kerala 2026

Puducherry Assembly election: Voter turnout at 37.06% as of 11...

Kerala Assembly elections: Shashi Tharoor says high voter turnout...

BTech graduate, security guard extort ₹1 crore by blackmailing wif...