

Supreme Court seeks response from Centre, others on plea to prevent cattle intrusion on highways

The plea has sought a direction to the authorities to frame and enforce uniform national guidelines to prevent cattle intrusion on highways

Published - April 06, 2026 04:57 pm IST - New Delhi

PTI

Motorists make their way between a flock of stray cows block traffic while wandering in the middle of a road. File | Photo Credit: Shiv Kumar Pushpakar

The Supreme Court on Monday (April 6, 2026) sought responses from the Centre and others on a plea seeking direction to the authorities to ensure that stray cattle is kept away from national and State highways across the country.

A bench of Justices Vikram Nath and Sandeep Mehta issued notice to the Centre and others, including the States, Union Territories and Animal Welfare Board of India, seeking their responses on the plea within four weeks.

In Case You Missed It

Vanathi Srinivasan to undergo treatment for...

KTR hints at padayatra in 2027, rules out tie-up with BJP

Satlok Ashram head Rampal walks out of jail after being...

Environmental group welcomes court order on halti...

Coimbatore's local cable TV telecasts Jana Nayagan; TVK...

Vatal Nagaraj draws attention with unique protest

Nepal journalist arrested for criticising PM Balendra Sha...

Bangladesh government starts China outreach, to...