

2026-04-13

Watch: Hungary election 2026: Peter Magyar's landslide win ends Viktor Orbán's 16-year rule

With over two-thirds of seats projected, this election marks a turning point not only for Hungary but for Europe. The vote drew global attention, with Donald Trump backing Orbán, while the result could reshape Hungary's ties with the European Union and Russia under Vladimir Putin. Record voter turnout and rising public frustration over economic stagnation and corruption fueled Magyar's rise. His promises of reform and transparency have resonated with millions.